SUBJECT TOPICALLY REFERENCED UNDER:

Introduction to the Text:

Philippians 1:22-26

THE RELEVANT CHRISTIAN

1.) Recognizing what's under your skin vs. 8-11

2.) Realizing the centrality of your mission vs. 12-14

3.) Rejoicing in the face of everything vs. 15-21

We left off with that profound declaration of Paul's in:

21 For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

That deep understanding of reality is what empowered Paul to live as he did in this world.

This could very well become the motto of the 21st. century Christian.

And we learned last time that...

having Jesus now is the ultimate fulfillment in this life, “But wait there’s more” – we learned also that upon death, the Christian enters into the very presence of God Himself, accepted, approved and beloved!

It is tough in one breath, in few words, but the aged apostle now tells us where his affections lie.

Philippians 1:20-21

20 according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. 21 For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

Philippians 1:22-26

But if I live on in the flesh, this will mean fruit from my labor; yet what I shall choose I cannot tell. 23 For I am hard-pressed between the two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. 24 Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you. 25 And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of faith, 26 that your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

THE RELEVANT CHRISTIAN

4.) Remaining faithful to the end

vs. 22-26

THE RELEVANT CHRISTIAN

REMAINING FAITHFUL TO THE END

4a.) By being a wise investor

vs. 22

22 But (if) I live on in the flesh, this will mean fruit from my labor; yet what I shall choose I cannot tell.

Paul sees himself as an investor in eternal things.

22a But (if) I live on in the flesh,

The flesh being this human body, this tool built for God's uses and God's purposes.

"as opportunity presents – I will capitalize on whatever comes my way"

Romans 12:1-2

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. 2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

There is Power in Surrendering Your Body to Jesus

Romans 6:18-19

And having been set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness. 19 I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves of uncleanness, and of lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves of righteousness for holiness.

THE RELEVANT CHRISTIAN IS SERIOUS ABOUT
REMAINING FAITHFUL TO THE END

By Being A Wise Investor in What Will Last

22b this will mean fruit from my labor;

fruit καρπο/β καρπος, kar-pos; that which is picked or plucked or taken away. the harvesting of that which is desirable. (this is the root word for the greek 'har-pad-zo' – to take up and away. it's the greek word for the latin word, 'rapture').

It implies that what is done for Jesus and the Kingdom is the type of an investment that has eternal payback.

John 15:5,16a

"I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing... 16 You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain.

Christian, you will never be able to grow "fruit" for God unless you're planted in some garden somewhere.

Paul was Careful About Being A Wise Investor

Mark 8:35-37

For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it. 36 For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? 37 Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

This Reveals an Issue / Dilemma in Paul's Life

And I pray that it's my Issue, my dilemma too

22c yet what (which) I shall choose I cannot tell.

21 For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

Heaven was beyond a desire to Paul. It was more than a reality, It was the burning, 24/7 passion of his heart, his mind, and because that was true - he used his body, a tool, to accomplish what God wanted from him.

*Are you teaching your son that God is the ultimate priority?

*Are you training your daughter how to make the right decisions?

*Are you teaching your children that God is more important than soccer?

How should I be living / investing in light of eternity?

- 1.) Are my activities honoring to God?
- 2.) What takes up the bulk of my thinking?
- 3.) What do my resources say about my faith?
- 4.) How do I spend my leisure time?

THE RELEVANT CHRISTIAN
REMAINING FAITHFUL TO THE END

4b.) By living larger than life

vs. 23-24

23 For I am hard-pressed between the two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. 24 Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you.

These two verses just might summarize the psyche of a mature Christian perfectly.

How so?

As we spiritually develop and grow, we, at the same time begin to see less value in the material things of this world Until we ultimately mature to the point where Paul is at here.

That Life is Actually Larger then What We Assumed

2 Corinthians 12:1-4

It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord: 2 I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago - - whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, God knows - - such a one was caught up to the third heaven. 3 And I know such a man - - whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows - - 4 how he was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

So then, This is no small admission.

Coming from a man who had actually seen heaven and it's glories, for him to be open to prospect of staying here says allot to us regarding his willingness to serve others.

He is willing to postpone his going to heaven if it means that others might grow closer to Jesus Christ.

Am I willing to postpone my going to heaven if it means that others might grow closer to Jesus Christ.

"If heaven is your ever-present reality – then there is nothing that can steal your joy away from you or rob you of your assurance!"

Verse 23a

hard-pressed sune÷cw sunecho, to squeeze or to hold together, the image is a man walking into a steep canyon until his shoulders are being compressed, to be perplexed, afflicted, preoccupied. be taken away with, or to be held tight.

We have another example of him being HARD-PRESSED?

Paul's "Agape" love for his Jewish brethren

Romans 9:1-4

I tell the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit, 2 that I have great sorrow and continual grief in my heart. 3 For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my countrymen according to the flesh, 4 who are Israelites, to whom pertain the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service of God, and the promises;

23b having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. (grk: much, more, better)

having a desire ejpiqumi÷a epithumia, ep-ee-thoo-mee´-ah; is a driving passion for. to pursue after or to long for with delight. To be living for that thing.

but "having a Desire" is to always, at all times, constantly have this desire.

Paul revealed this reality of his to the Corinthians

2 Corinthians 5:6-8

So we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord. 7 For we walk by faith, not by sight. 8 We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.

ejpiqumi÷a epithumia, ep-ee-thoo-mee´-ah

From this word we can see into Paul's motivation.

For living life as he did, He was possessed, controlled, obsessed with seeing God.

Every Christian I know that has even "the smallest" revelation of God – they desire to be with Him.

"Life is what we are alive to", what excites you and draws you in, what is it that holds your attention? - Whatever or whoever it is - that is your God!

Verse 23b

Depart ajnalu/w analuo, an-al-oo'-o; to break camp, to move on, to relocate.

Mariners used this word to shout out that the ship was departing from the dock. To untie, loosen the moorings. To set sail.

It was a very common word used in various applications.

By mariners / By the courts / By Soldiers

2 Timothy 4:6-8

For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure is at hand. 7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

8 Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.

23c To be with Christ = which is far better.

2 Corinthians 5:1-5

For we know that if our earthly house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven, 3 if indeed, having been clothed, we shall not be found naked. 4 For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we want to be unclothed, but further clothed, that mortality may be swallowed up by life. 5 Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

Can You Hear Me Right Now?

How is it that you can hear me? Physically, my ears are capturing the sound waves and my brain is interpreting the pattern and applying meaning to the sounds that I am hearing. But what is the end result? - - Spiritually, Invisibly, my conscience is greatly affected by the reception of the information.

This is Teleonomics

This is a wonderful reality – hang on to your hats;

once we are “born of the Spirit”, that is “born again”, the Christian can never lose consciousness with Jesus Christ – never, Because it is a spiritual connection. You will never be separated from God, ever!

THE RELEVANT CHRISTIAN REMAINING FAITHFUL TO THE END

4c.) By serving those near to us

vs. 25-26

25 And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of faith, 26 that your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

1 Corinthians 4:1-2

Let a man so consider us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. 2 Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful.

faithful οἰκονομοῦ οἰκονομος, oy-kon-om'-os; from 3624 and the base of 3551; a house-distributor (i.e. manager), or overseer, i.e. an employee in that capacity; by extension, a fiscal agent (treasurer); figuratively, a preacher (of the Gospel): — chamberlain, governor, steward.

Usefulness and fruitfulness is a comforting reality to any servant of God and when our Usefulness and fruitfulness has come to an end, we look up to the finish-line,

2 Timothy 4:7

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.
