Why Is Sex & Sexuality
So Important To Our Identity ?

Part 6

SUBJECT TOPICALLY REFERENCED UNDER:

Sex, Apologetics, Answers, LGBT, Abominations, Hope

Genesis 2:18-25

And the Lord God said, 'It is not good that man should be alone; I will make him a helper comparable to him.' Out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name. So Adam gave names to all cattle, to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper comparable to him. And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he slept; and He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place. Then the rib which the Lord God had taken from man He made into a woman, and He brought her to the man. And Adam said: 'This is now bone of my bones And flesh of my flesh; She shall be called Woman, Because she was taken out of Man.' Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh. And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed."

God takes the issue of Sex and Sexuality very Seriously.

He has been and is very clear regarding Gender Identity
And to disagree with God in this area is to reject His authority, His design, His plan and His purpose for why you were given life in the first place.

Little boy Billy, asked his mom and dad, "Where did I come from?" The parents knew this day would eventually come, so they sat Billy down and gave him the "talk" from A to Z. When they had finished, Billy appeared to be completely baffled, looked up at his parents he said, "I'm not sure about all that stuff, but my friend Johnny says he came from Chicago, so, where did I come from?"

A great example as to parents knowing what and what not to say.

Leave it to the Christian Community to mess things up

When it comes to sex and sexuality, the Historical Church has Tended to Downplay Sex and Sexuality - even within Marriage. This is a form of Platonism or Christ-Platonism, meaning – if it's physical, then it must be sinful, yet that view is antithetical to Scripture.

Genesis 1:31

Then God saw everything that He had (physically) made, and indeed it was very good.

Why Is Sex and Sexuality So Important To Our Identity?

1.) Where has all the confusion come from?

Not from God nor from Science.

Genesis 1:26-28

Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." 27 So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. 28 Then God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth."

Genesis 2:25 & Genesis 4:1

2:25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed... 4:1 Now Adam knew (yada) Eve his wife, and she conceived

How Could This Have Happened without Sex Education Being Taught in the Public School Class?

The Bible Limits Sexual Experiences and Expression to One Man and One Woman, and that in the context of the bonds (a binding arrangement) of marriage.

This "conjugal design" is for the creation and propagation of family, community, culture, country and world. It is limited to heterosexual monogamy.

Question?

Why is the global community, the global culture, so hell-bent on making sure that your kid knows all about sex, any kind of sex, perverted sex, damaging sex, hurtful sex, unnatural sex - now?

There is a spiritual agenda to attack God and God's creation.

The LGBT lifestyle must always borrow from normal, borrow from what is natural to present itself as “being normal”

Male emperor Penguins keep the newly laid eggs warm, but they do not sit on them, as many other birds do. Males stand and protect their eggs from the elements by balancing them on their feet and covering them with feathered skin known as a brood pouch.

Deuteronomy 22:5

“A woman must not put on men’s clothing, and a man must not wear women’s clothing. Anyone who does this is detestable in the sight of the Lord your God.

According to a report presented at a bisexual health summit held in August of 2009, There’s a quotation from the book “A Queer Thing Happened to America” (this is on page 489)

“Research presented by Cheryl Dobinson, MA, and Stewart Landers, JD, MCP, from their two separate studies was remarkably similar. Bisexuals reported suffering from depression and anxiety in higher rates than heterosexuals or lesbians and gay men. In terms of attempting or thinking of attempting suicide, bisexual men were 7 times higher, while gay men were 4 times higher, than straight men; bisexual women were 6 times higher, while lesbian women were 4 times higher, than straight women. An Australian study revealed that middle-aged bisexual women were 24 times more likely to engage in physical mutilation, self-harm and cuttings, than sexually abused straight women, as a coping mechanism. The research also revealed that 74% of bisexuals reported to have had experienced child sexual abuse. What does this tell us about the impact of “nurture” on sexual orientation, at least in a large number of cases? and how can any of this be deemed either “normal” or “positive”?

I want to encourage you tonight.

I do not struggle with, nor am I tempted by the sin of gambling.

I do not struggle with, nor am I tempted by the sin of covetousness.

I do not struggle with, nor am I tempted by the sin of homosexuality.

I do not struggle with, nor am I tempted by the sin of drugs.

I do not struggle with, nor am I tempted by the sin of alcohol.

But I do struggle with other forms of temptation.

Your temptations and mine are to be refused, rejected, & denied.

Because GIVING IN TO THE TEMPTATION is the sin.
Woe to those who promote, endorse, propagate,
advance, spread temptation to sin

Matthew 18:6

“Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were drowned in the depth of the sea. 7 Woe to the world because of offenses! For offenses must come, but woe to that man by whom the offense comes!

Luke 17:29

But on the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.
